50X1-HUM

1. Officers in the Rumanian Army are required to answer the following questionnaire:
 - a. Do you believe that the Groza Cabinet can govern the country on the basis of nationalism?
 - b. Why is the Soviet Army the most powerful in the world?
 - c. In whose service should the Peoples Army of the Rumanian Republic be?
 - d. What is your opinion regarding the fraternization of our Army with the Soviet Army?
 - e. Why does Tito and his clique represent a danger to the People's Republic of Rumania?
 - f. Why doesn't Bolshevism have an imperialistic and capitalistic character?
2. In military training courses the enemy is always the American who must be destroyed. Those trainees who fail to meet the standards set up by the school board receive one of the following classifications on their military personal records:
 - a. Undesirable in the event of mobilization.
 - b. Dangerous in the event of mobilization.
 - c. Not dangerous in the event of mobilization.
 - d. Undesirable in the event of war.
 - e. Dangerous to the political life and security of the people.

Those of the last category are sent directly to prison or to a concentration camp.

3. Those trainees who are successful in their examinations are declared capable of becoming noncommissioned or commissioned officers. Once having reached this stage, they can no longer refuse assignment as officers. Such a refusal on their part automatically leads to their immediate imprisonment as "enemies of the people".
